Latest Developments in Lyle Case

Mrs. Vimont Lyle, whose recent escapade in Lexington has created such widespread attention, returned to Danville, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock and was immediately driven to the residence of her father, Mr. W. B. Holmes, where she remained over night. She was accompanied by her husband's cousin, Frank P. Kenney, and her attorney, S. S. Yantis, of Lexington.

Her father, feeling that it was unsafe to live in the house with her, on account of the condition of her mind, applied to the Boyle County Court for a writ for lunacy, which was issued by County Judge R. S. Nichols. Mrs. Lyle, who had been summoned to court, failed to appear. The Sheriff and Chief of Police had just secured a carriage and intended to force her to come to the court house, when they were notified by the attorneys that it had been decided to postpone the case until next Monday, when it is reported Mr. Lyle will arrive from New York.

While Mrs. Lyle belongs to one of the best and most aristocratic families in Danville and is an exceedingly handsome woman, little credence is given to the reports sent out from Lexington, which would indicate that there is a doubt as to her sanity. For months her queer actions have been the talk of Danville, and there are few, if any, in that city who do not believe that her's is a genuine case of lunacy. Not long since, while a Centre College carnival was in full blast on the college campus, she became offended at her father for some trivial reason and attempted to give him a public horse-whipping.

Attention, Ladies.

It is a fact and conceded by good authorities that the hair should be shampooed and the scalp massaged at least every two weeks to keep it in good shape. The hair will be made healthy and will stop falling out if the scalp is properly massaged twice a month. I am a graduate at the business. I also do chiropodist work. Leave orders at Varden's.

Married in Oklahoma.

News has come to the groom's family here of the marriage of Miss Mattie Belle Pugh to Mr. Victor Howard, which was solemnized last Sunday in Pawnee, Oklahoma, in the home of the officiating minister, Rev. Mr. Black, of the Methodist church. It is quite a surprise to Kentucky kinsmen and friends who knew that the two young people were engaged in former years, but had not heard of the renewal of the romance. Mr. Howard was formerly of Ruddies Mills, this county, but for the last two years has made his home at Pawhuska, Oklahoma, where he is in business as a cattle ranchman. He is the youngest brother of the late John H. Howard, who died a short time ago and was brought back to be buried in his old home at Paris just a few months before he was to have been married to Miss Margaret Pugh, sister of the bride. Two weeks ago Miss Ida Redmon, of this city, niece of Mr. Howard, with the Misses Pugh, left on a visit to her uncle's ranch, but did not know of the plans for the marriage. Shortly after their arrival the bride and bridegroom, with their attendants, Miss Margaret Pugh and Mr. K. H. Curtis, Miss Ida Redmon and Mr. G. R. Carter, drove 15 miles to Pawnee, where the wedding was celebrated. The bride is the beautiful daughter of Mr. George Pugh, of Lexington.
